Moon is Ruritan guest

Roy Moon injured in a farm accident last September.

Roy Moon, a retired pharmacist from Appomattox, was guest speaker at the Oakville Ruritan Club's July meeting.

He was invited by Francis Tyler of the Citizenship and Patriotism Committee, and he gave a very humorous, yet patriotic talk.

He was accompanied by his wife, Gladys, and their visit was greatly appreciated by the Ruritans.

Mr. Basil Lucado reported that he had presented a $2,500 check to Linda Booth. The money represented the proceeds from the draft horse pull in June, which was sponsored by the Ruritans Clubs of Appomattox County as a benefit for Mrs. Booth, who was seriously injured in a farm accident last September.
